Evergreen Senior to Compete in Miss Alaska Scholarship Pagent

Maryline Blackburn, a senior at The Evergreen State College, was recently selected as Miss Anchorage in the preliminary scholarship pageant for Miss Alaska and Miss America.

Maryline, who has spent all four years of her college career attending Evergreen, is majoring in business management and fashion merchandising and is currently working at The Bon in Olympia's Capital Mall on a management trainee internship.

A native of Fairbanks, Alaska, she was selected as Miss Fairbanks in the 1979 Golden Heart Scholarship Pageant and won an $1,800 scholarship. She was a finalist in the 1980 Miss Alaska Scholarship Pageant and came away with a $200 scholarship.

In winning the Miss Anchorage competition, she wowed the judges by performing two Diana Ross songs, "Touch Me in the Morning" and "I'm Coming Out." She received a $500 scholarship for her efforts.

She will leave Evergreen on May 28 to again compete in the Miss Alaska Pageant on June 4, four days before her 22nd birthday. If she wins there, it's on to Atlantic City and the Miss America Scholarship Pageant in September.

Atkins Terms St. Louis Agreement A Desegregation Victory

NAACP General Counsel Thomas I. Atkins said that the St. Louis, Mo., school desegregation agreement is the "biggest school desegregation case that has ever been litigated at the liability level" because it involves not only innercity schools districts but surrounding counties as well.

The NAACP's efforts to desegregate the St. Louis schools dates back to the mid-Seventies. In 1980 when the civil rights organization and St. Louis moved to include he suburbs in the desegregation efforts, the city was by then operating under a mandatory busing plan, which had been ordered in 1980. The city's schools, however, remained mostly black because 80 percent of its 59,000 students were black.

If the tentative agreements can be converted into reality, the following general activities will take place:

1. Each St. Louis County District will reserve no less than 15% of their seats for black students.
2. St. Louis will develop a series of "magnet schools", to which schools white suburban students will be recruited.
3. Each suburban district will hire black professional staff.
4. Special emphases will be given to assuring equitable treatment in such historical problem areas as discipline, testing extra-curricular programs during the desegregation process.
5. The cost of the desegregation activities to take place will be borne by the State of Missouri, with possible assistance from St. Louis through necessary tax monies.

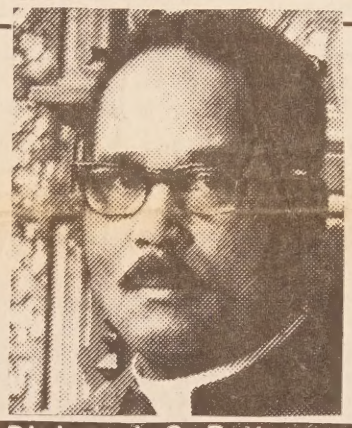
Bishop J. O. Patterson to Tour C.O.G.I.C. in March 1983



Bishop J. O. Patterson

Presiding Bishop J.O. Patterson, Head of the nearly four million member Church of God in Christ, Inc., headquartered in Memphis, Tennessee announced that he will tour the entire Church of God in Christ in the month of March, 1983.

The denominational leader of the predominantly black Pentecostal Church announced that ASU (All Saints University), scheduled to open in Memphis in late 1984, is nearer completion; and his visits to the several areas of the Church are designed to expose the national church to the grass-roots members who never attend national conventions or convocations.

The presiding Bishop will introduce many new and innovative programs for the Church's youth ministries and mission ministry.

Persons interested in attending the sessions should call The Church of God in Christ nearest your residence or the Bishop of the Church of God in Christ in your immediate community.

John E. Arradondo Elected Pres. of Family Medicine

John E. Arradondo, MD, MPH, Chairman of the Department of Family Medicine at Meharry Medical College, has been elected President-Elect of the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine (STFM). The STFM, headquartered in Kansas City, is the academic arm of family medicine. The organization has some 3,000 members, 70% of whom are physicians.

Dr. Arradondo is the first Tennessean, Meharrian and Black to head the STFM and the first Tennessean, Meharrian and the youngest person to head the Family Practice Section of the National Medical Association.

After graduating with honors from Oklahoma City University, Dr. Arradondo received his M. D. degree from Harvard and went to St. Louis for three years of training at Washington University's Jewish and Barnes Hospitals. He received his Master of Public Health (MPH) with leadership honors from Harvard in 1972 with emphasis in curriculum design and epidemiology.

Tacoman Youth Serves as State Page

For one week, Jim, 16, experienced the legislative process firsthand by viewing House sessions from the floor and assisting representatives.

Jim is presently a 10th-grader at Wilson High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshal Konsmo of Tacoma.

Looking for "Good Times?"

by Brad McCulloch

Then come see "Good Times" at the Al Davies Boys & Girls Club on March 10, 11 & 12th. The play is based on a popular '70's TV show of the same name and deals with many issues that are still relevant today with unemployment, hard times, and being "pushed" through school instead of learning.

The first act, call "J.J. The Junior," has JJ (Brett Hampton) being pushed through high school so that the school can graduate a higher percentage of the class.

Act Two, "Getting Up the Rent," has Papa or James Sr. (Darryl Dixon) fighting eviction by struggling to come up with the rent.

Others in the cast are: Phyliss Harris (Florida). Phyliss has been in many local productions including "Simply Heaven", "Ahmen Carter," and "Gods Favorite." She would like to be a singer.

Curtis Dudley (Michael) says there is a lot of him in his character, Michael. Curtis has been in one other production at the Boys Club.

Joylan Netter (Mrs. Kirkman). This is Joylan's first play since third grade, but she enjoyed it.

Olivia Decoursey (Thelma); Olivia is originally from Philadelphia where she was in high school plays and cultural ensemble.

Theresa Moor (Willona): "Terry" started Good Times as a community project, then it became just plain fun. She would prefer to be a serious actress.

Wilbur Camarty (Eddie): This is Wilbur's first play but, according to him, not his last.

Odell Stephens (Tom): Odell says he learned his lines in one night because the original "Tom" quit.

The Director, Rodney Clark, has been in professional theater for about 3 years and is currently majoring in Drama at the University of Washington. Rodney learned a great deal of patience was necessary in directing; thereby making this a learning as well as a teaching experience for him.

He, and the entire cast, are grateful to the community and to the Al Davies Boys & Girls Club for letting them bring to us, "Good Times."

Almost 72, Susie is Still on Cue

After 30 years of service Mother Susie M. Davis was ordained and licensed as Church Mother and Missionary. February 13, 1983 was a monumental occasion at Eastside Community Church as Rev. Dr. Alfred C. Davis, Sr. gave this "great woman" her papers.

Mother Davis was born Oct. 9, 1911 in Vadin, Mississippi. She is the wife of Rev. Sherman Davis, Sr. and the mother of 7 sons, three of whom are ministers of the gospel: Rev. Sherman Davis, Jr., Wiley Davis and Rev. Dr. Alfred C. Davis.

In an interview, we asked "What was the happiest moment of her life?" and she replied, "It must have been when I was Saved." Her face beamed when she talked about her walk with God and all His goodness.

As she turns over and rolls out of bed at 6 am, she says, "Thank you Jesus," then she says her morning prayers and her first question is, "Lord, what is thy will for me today?" After prayer she is on her way doing whatever her hands find to do.

Much of her time is spent in the kitchen cooking and baking to the glory and honor of God. If you sit there watching, you can see the spirit move with her. Just sitting at her table is a blessing, for she is a woman truly adorned with a beauty that surpasses all.

When asked, "What was her advice to the world" she lovingly stated, "Love your husbands and children." Proverbs 31:28&31.

Not only is she spiritually fit by being an active church member but Susie is physically fit as well, as she does quite well with a jump rope.

Mother Davis presently holds three offices and is active in each: Church Mother, Church Clerk, and Advisor: Hospitality, Pastors Aide, Sunshine Band, Pres. of Bible Band.

ANNOUNCEMENT

BITS & PIECES
by Roger O.

Last weekend was very exciting at the Al Davies Boys & Girls Club. It seemed like old times again with the Junior Golden Glove Boxing Tournament, chaired by Fletcher Jenkins, President of the Tacoma Boxing Club and past Director of the Tacoma Downtown Boys Club for many years.

The program was well-organized with the assistance of Jeff Fletcher, Emmett Linton, Andy White, Don Mustin, Bernice Jennings, George Wright, Minnie Coley, Darla Knapp, Don Williams, Jerry Brooks, Theresa Linton and her committee-managing the snackbar. The feeling of community and club involvement were felt by all concerned. There will be more activities coming your way in the very near future.

The play "Good Times" has been extended (for your pleasure) for three more days this week: Thursday, Friday and Saturday, starting at 7:30 p.m. Admission for this play is $2.00 for adults 19 years and older, and $1.00 for students and Senior Citizens.

Hope to see you there!!

CHILD CARE TAX CREDIT INCREASED FOR 1982 TAX YEAR

Beginning with the 1982 tax year, taxpayers qualifying for Child Care Credit can claim up to $2,400 for one dependent instead of the $2000 provided under the old laws, and $4,800 for two or more dependents instead of the previous $4000.

Taxpayers requiring additional information on the Child Care Credit benefits may obtain a free copy of IRS Publication 503, "Child and Disabled Dependent Care", by using the order blank in their tax package or by calling the IRS Forms and Publications number, 1-800-542-7890 (442-5100 in Seattle).

DRINKS....DIMES...DREAMS, THE MAGIC'S IN THE DRINK

A fund-raising event sponsored by Orange Julius and the Variety Club of the Pacific Northwest.

For each Orange Julius DRINK sold from March 7 - 20, 10¢ will be donated to Variety Club Children's Charities. Orange Julius has pledged to raise $10,000 for Variety Club. These DiMES will buy a van to be used as a Variety Club Sunshine Coach that will be donated to one of Variety Club Children's Charities.

The Sunshine Coach is a DREAM to many handicapped and underprivileged children presently unable to get to hospitals or schools for treatment. One Sunshine Coach can serve as many as 60 children in one day - that is a lot of dreams Orange Julius and you could fulfill.

COPES: NEW MEDICAID SERVICES

Beginning this month, in selected areas of the state, DSHS is going to be offering home and community based services to persons found eligible for nursing home care. The services which include adult family home care, congregate care, personal care and case management, will be provided through the Community Options Program Entry System (COPES).

To be eligible for COPES services, a person must: Be 18 years of age and over; Have gross monthly income which is less than $852.90; Have resources at or below the Supplemental Security Income standard; Be eligible for nursing home care; Choose to remain in his or her own home or in a licensed congregate care facility or adult family home; Have a plan of care developed by a service worker.

COPES is not for everyone. Each application will be reviewed during a formal case staffing. At this staffing, a plan of care is developed. The plan of care must assure the health and safety of the applicant.

COPES will initially be available in Regions 4 and 5, but should be implemented statewide by July, 1983. The project is funded for three years. It may be funded for an additional three years if shown to be cost effective.

For more information about COPES, contact: Phil Wozniak, Bureau of Aging and Adult Services; (206) 753-1244 or SCAN 234-1244.

YWCA WORKSHOPS SCHEDULED

Pre-menstrual syndrome (PMS) and venereal diseases will be the subjects of a two-part workshop to be held Friday, March 11, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Tacoma-Pierce County YWCA, 405 Broadway. The free workshop is part of the YWCA's "Women In Transition" program, which assists women in preparing for and finding employment. Subjects to be covered will include herpes, sexually transmitted diseases and pre-menstrual syndrome.

On Wednesday, March 16, "Your Credit Rights will be the topic of another free YWCA workshop presented by Judie Fortier of the City of Tacoma's Human Relations Department, Women's Rights Division.

"Single Parenting" will be the last free workshop of the month on Friday, March 25, from 10 a.m. to noon at the YWCA.

For additional information and registration, contact Colleen McMonagle at 272-4181 or 627-1567.

PRELIMINARY RATE STUDY REPORT FOR THE LAKEWOOD/PARKLAND SEWER

Pierce County Executive Booth Gardner released a preliminary rate study report for the Lakewood/Parkland Sewer, ULID 73-1. A sewer rate is a monthly charge for service. It is in addition to the assessment, which constitutes funding for the capital cost of construction.

A final report will be completed in the future which will include additional documentation provided to the County. This "final report" will be a report, recommendation and study, and, as such, will be part of the overall data submitted to the Pierce County Council for action.

While the preliminary report is not a public document, it is being made available to the media because of the citizen interest in this project. The final report will be more complete and may have changes or other alternatives.

The preliminary projections for the 1985 rates for the Lakewood/Parkland sewer, ULID 73-1, customers are:

Single Family	$19.45/month
Multi-Family	12.95/month
Low-Use Commercial	33.10/month
Median-Use Commercial	34.45/month
High-Use Commercial	215.70/month

The 1986 projections for ULID 73-1 show a decrease presently because more users will be hooked up to share the maintenance costs.

ANNUAL REPORTS DUE APRIL 15

People in the Tacoma area who receive Social Security checks and who earned more than the annual limit in 1982 should remember that they must file an annual report of their 1982 earnings by April 15 if they have not yet done so.

The 1982 annual earnings limits were $6,000 for people who were 65 or older and $4,440 for people who were under 65 all of 1982. People who were 72 or older all of 1982 do not have to file an annual report of earnings.

The report is used to ensure that people received the correct amount of benefits last year. Any necessary adjustment will be made based on the information in the report.

More information about how earnings affect the receipt of benefits can be obtained at the Tacoma Social Security office, located at 1208 S. 10th St. The telephone number is 1-800-562-6350. The people there will be glad to answer any questions

ECONOMIC INDICATORS BELIE STATE OF BLACK AMERICA

As administration economists prepare to revise their slow-growth economic forecast for 1983, to take account of declining oil prices and signs of a stronger-than-expected recovery, Black America is still grappling with the forces of a recession reality.

The current slow-growth forecast, a 1 percent first-quarter growth rate and a 3.1 percent annual rate, was one of the projections on which the budget for the fiscal year 1984 was based.

According to the National Urban League's annual survey "The State of Black America" black unemployment was 15.5 percent at the end of 1981 but at 1982's end, it had climbed to a staggering 20 percent.

Urban League President John E. Jacob said 1982 "was not a good year, and of course, no year is, to be Black and poor in America."

The report went on to point out that one in three blacks lived below the official government poverty line, compared to one in 10 whites.

The Reagan administration must bear much of the blame for our high unemployment and the hardships resulting from his administration's drastic cuts in domestic spending. I hope this is an economic lesson we learn well and remember in 1984.

NEW TAX LAW FOR RETIREMENT SAVINGS

Workers who are already covered by a company pension plan may now qualify to set up an Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA), according to Michael J. Quinn, Seattle IRS District Director.

An IRA is a savings program that allows participants to set aside money for their retirement. Contributions to an IRA are tax deductible. The earnings accrued are not taxed until they are distributed. Distributions generally are not made until retirement when income is normally lower.

Contributions to an IRA may be made at any time during the tax year and up to the due date, April 15, for that year.

Complete information on IRA's can be found in IRS Publication 590, "Tax Information on Individual Retirement Arrangements." This free publication can be ordered by mail or phone from IRS.

ST. JOHN
CHAPTER 15

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commanments, and abide in his love.

These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Ye are my friends if ye do whatsoever I command you.

Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

We welcome news of your church and civic events.

SOMETHING'S WRONG

Equality was once an issue everyone acknowledged. For or against, it was hard to ignore. And that was good; it is an important and moral issue. But now, something's gone wrong. People forget that the advances made by the minorities in this country came after decades of struggle.

The NAACP hasn't forgotten; through the changes of presidents and national moods, the NAACP has single-mindedly sought one goal: EQUALITY IN ALL ASPECTS OF AMERICAN LIFE. It has contributed greatly to the quality of life in America for Black citizens. Now, the NAACP needs your contribution.

You can contribute to the NAACP painlessly by telling your employer (city, county, state government or major corporation), you'd like to give to the NAACP through a payroll deduction plan.

The NAACP hasn't forgotten!

Don't forget the NAACP! HELP US HELP OURSELVES.

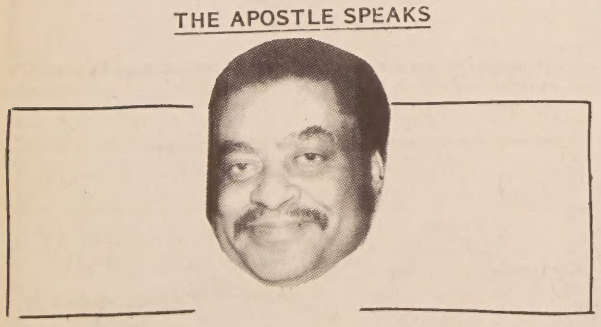
THE APOSTLE SPEAKS



THE NATURAL LIKENESS OF THE FIRST CHIEF APOSTLE
SERIES #1, PART 4

2ND CHAPTER OF ACTS: 17TH VERSE

This is that, that was spoken of by the prophet, Joel. That in the last days he would pour out his spirit on all flesh, and your sons and daughters shall prophesy and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

We are living in the day that Jesus is soon to come, we must put away all racial indifference or segregation because the Spirit of God will only dwell in love, because God is Love, and the Spirit will not dwell in an unclean body.

1ST CORINTHIANS 3rd CHAPTER 16TH VERSE

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you.

MAJORITY VIEWPOINT
by Speaker of the House
Wayne Ehlers

I would imagine by now that most of the state's taxpayers are as sick and tired of hearing the Governor and the Legislature argue over taxes as I am. Nonetheless, there have been some very inaccurate statements made which deserve a response.

First of all, it is important to understand that the debate is not to tax or not to tax. Rather it concerns "temporary" vs. "permanent" state taxes. Why all the sudden interest in "temporary" taxes? Add the latest batch to those the Republicans enacted when they controlled the Legislature and the result is dramatic: over 25 percent of the state's tax system at one time or another has been scheduled to expire on June 30, 1983.

The logic that favors temporary taxes seems to be the old prosperity-is-just-around-the-corner theory. This same logic, and the overly optimistic revenue projections that went along with it, resulted in four costly special legislative sessions in addition to the two regular 1981 and 1982 sessions. Poker players call it betting on the come.

What frustrates me the most is the argument that our approach to the state's financial problem is unprecedented. Certainly Democrats tried a new approach in place of the same tired old ways of doing things that failed in the past. But didn't the voters indicate in November that they were sick of politics as usual and wanted fresh ideas?

Essentially, what Democrats tried to do was the same thing everyone who has ever written a family budget must do: we tried to make enough money to pay for the necessities.

NEW CHANGES FOR PACIFIC NW BELL

Pacific Northwest Bell received approval from the Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission for changes in busy verification, an operator assistance service. The majority of customers will not be affected by these changes.

According to Don Hobbs, PNB Vice President for Washington/Idaho these changes do not represent an increase in the present rate for the service, which is 25 cents for each request to verify if a subscriber's line is busy and not out of service. However, the company now has approval to apply the charge to requests originating within the local calling area from guests in hotels, motels patients in hospitals. Presently, people calling from those locations are exempted.

Hobbs said that by extending the charge, "it will ensure that each customer pays the cost of a service specifically requested by them so that others do not have their bills increased to pay for the costs associated with the service."

There is no charge for busy verification when the line is found to have a maintenance problem.

Janice Darling at Health & Fitness Fair

Janice Darling, known as "the miracle lady with the miracle attitude" is the featured guest and keynote speaker at the Fit & Together Health and Fitness Fair on Saturday, March 19, at the East Madison YMCA. Ms. Darling, fitness expert and director of The Sweatshop in Los Angeles, has gained national attention since she rebuilt her body and her life after a near-crippling auto accident.

Fit & Together offers a full day of workshops by top local health care professionals as well, in the areas of stress reduction, goal-setting, decision-making, proper diet and nutrition, and physical fitness. Luncheon and snacks will be served, and Ms. Darling will conduct a modified version of her famous "Tuff Stuff" exercise class as one of the morning workshops.

The Fit & Together Health and Fitness Fair will take place from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the East Madison YMCA, 1700 23rd Avenue. Advance registration is $25.00 for adults and $12.50 for students (with ID) and senior citizens. Registration the day of the Fair is $5.00 more.

The registration fee includes all meals and snacks, workshops, materials and resource information. Please call Georgiana Arnold at 587-2788 for further registration information.

SEEDS SOWN BY OLD NTDRA PROJECT STILL GROWING

They called it "Project Own" when NTDRA initiated the program to help start new businesses for those who were capable but needed financial help. For "Len" Baldwin it was "PROJECT SUCCESS."

Len retired from the Army with a dream of owning his own business but needed some financial help. NTDRA's program was tailor-made and the man and the program came together with the help of NTDRA member R. H. Gillette Distributors of Tacoma, WA.

Rupe Gillette along with John Hauge of the same company and Hub Peel, NTDRA representative, went to work. It took some time to get all the paper work handled but with Len's background, and the help of these sponsors it was not long until "BALDWIN TIRE AND BRAKE" was a reality and the dream became a business.

Today, fourteen years after all the work started, the loan has long since been paid off and the business is flourishing. Len took full advantage of the help offered by those who had sponsored him in the program; he listened and learned. The business prospered and more than that, Len was able to become an important part of the community and to help and serve those who needed him. The walls of his office are covered with all the activities he is involved in.

John Hauge became more than an advisor; he became a friend and they still see and talk to each other even though Len is far from the day when he needed John's counsel in getting things started.

Hub Peel retired some time ago and had not seen Len for quite some time, but he knew all about Len and remembered every detail of the man who was a "natural" for the program.

Recently John Hauge visited with Len and introduced him to Washington State Tire Dealer Association President-Elect Pat Earley. It was like old times, and it was good to see them talk about old times and the future. Pat Earley got a look at one of NTDRA's programs that really worked, and we all felt good after a visit with Len Baldwin, the man behind "PROJECT SUCCESS."

BLACKS MUST DEVELOP CULTURE

Dr. C.T. Vivian of the Black Action Strategy and Information Centre in Atlanta, Georgia, USA has called on blacks all over the world to strive to develop their own cultures to give them respect and dignity as a people.

He stressed that because of the adoption and imitation of European cultures, "blacks have been enslaved in their own countries."

Dr. Vivian described the 1980's as a very difficult decade for the developing countries which have been caught in the "vicious economic circle.

Dr. Vivian asked African leaders to try as much as possible to promote the economic well-being of their countries which would ultimately improve the living standards of the people.

He stated that it is only through the building of good economies for these countries that the people would be free from imperialist and colonialist manipulations.

CITIZEN'S REVIEW COMMITTEE BEING FORMED

A citizen's review committee is being formed by the Metropolitan Park District of Tacoma to review the district's capital improvement program and make recommendations for major future projects.

This voluntary advisory committee will be composed of 35 members who reside within the boundaries of the Metropolitan Park District. Boundaries include the city of Tacoma and portions of Browns Point, Dash Point and Midland.

Persons interested in serving on the advisory committee should submit a resume or letter of interest to the Capital Improvements Advisory Committee, 10 Idaho Street, Tacoma, WA 98409.

Deadline for submitting a letter or resume is March 22.

CASH FOR KIDS CAMPAIGN

The Variety Club of the Pacific Northwest has begun their second annual "Cash for Kids" campaign to raise funds for underprivileged and handicapped children in the area. Throughout the month of March, participating product manufacturers will be donating percentages of proceeds from the products to the Variety Club.

A presentation by retailer, food brokers, and product manufacturers will be aired on the Variety Club/KIRO-TV Telethon, March 12 and 13, live from the Seattle Center, Center House.
